

NC Grey Dreams Of Her Adonis In Video For Song

[youtube id="-0YQoQLvvCE"] NC Grey's video for "Adonis" is about a woman developing feelings for a friend and contending with the fantasy of her ideal man. The British-Nigerian singer explained the video for "Adonis" in a press release:

"There are a lot of different elements that inspired this video. There's the conversation of us, as black women, waiting on our black knights or Adonis in this case, to come swoop us away. We've almost idolized our "black love" fairy tale. On the other side, Adonis hasn't limited himself to this fairy tale."
