Sam Fischer is an R&B singer from Australia based in Los Angeles. "Getting Older" is his newest single and in it, he sings about the uncertainty of the future. "Getting Older" follows "Lean" and "Same Friends" which introduced him as an artist. As a songwriter, he has co-written songs for DJ Mustard, Sabrina Claudio, Jennifer Hudson and Clean Bandit. His debut EP Not A Hobby will be released January 19th and of "Getting Older" he says:

"Getting Older is my favorite song off the EP and is as honest as I get. Simply put, the lyrics are just a retelling of the day we (myself, Asia Whiteacre, Morgan Taylor Reid & Johan Fransson) wrote the song, including the bird story. It's a stream of consciousness put to music about the uncertainties of the future and what we can't control, yet worry about constantly."
