

Tricky: New Stole Feat. Francesca Belmonte Official Video

[youtube id="oE8BsZUW5cs"] Tricky's video for "New Stole" is about a person who stops any kind of intimacy with another human being by morphing into another shape. The concept is expressed using molten wax effects under the direction of indexthumb. "New Stole" features his longtime collaborator Francesca Belmonte from the new ununiform album. He admits to using his sound from the '90s explained why,

"I've got a really wide audience. So I've got nothing to prove. I feel like sometimes it's OK to do it again."

ununiform was conceived in Moscow and recorded in Tricky's current home in Berlin.
