

Bruno Mars Pays Tribute To In Living Color In Finesse Remix Video With Cardi B

[youtube id="LsoLEjrDogU"] Bruno Mars always embraces his cultural influences and his admiration for Keneen Ivory Wayans' '90s sketch comedy show In Living Color takes over the "Finesse" remix video with Cardi B. The set is made up exactly like the show and Mars and Cardi mimic the show's opening scenes and he later does a routine with his dancers. Another group of dancers is in the role of The Flygirls who were led by Rosie Perez and had Jennifer Lopez as a member. The video looks like it was just as much fun to make as watching it. Mars' 24k Magic World Tour is on the road now.

This video is dedicated to one my favorite T.V shows of all time
