

Funkateer Bootsy Collins and Bishop Don "Magic" Juan Bring the Funk in 2018 with a House Party, Players Ball, Video Shoot Affair

Los Angeles -Â Sunday, January 28, 2018, Grammy night will be on fire from coast to coast as West Coast party goers, players and pranksters will have their own affair to blast into the future in full musical gear! New York may have the Grammys, but Hollywood will boast the funk asÂ Honeycomb Entertainment Productions, in conjunction withÂ Kevin Rouse'sÂ Rouse House EntertainmentÂ presentÂ "The Bootsy Collins Players Ball Hi-On-Heels House Party and Video Shoot," atÂ OHM NightclubÂ in Hollywood. In a rare West Coast appearance, the heroic bass god himself,Â William "Bootsy" Collins,"Â will be hosted by legendary hip-hop personalityÂ BishopÂ Don "Magic" Juan, alongside celebrity friends and family as he shoots a video for his new single release, "Hi-On-Heels."Â DJ Don JuanÂ andÂ DJ ParadiseÂ will bring the noise throughout the night! Ladies are encouraged to wear their highest heels and gents their sharpest threads as this Los Angeles-based Grammy night event will galvanize the new year with a titanic blast! OHM Nightclub is located atÂ 6801 Hollywood Blvd, Suite 433, in Hollywood. Tickets can be purchased atÂ Eventbrite.com.

William "Bootsy" Collins is an iconic figure in R&B, soul, rock and funk. He launched his career early on with the "Godfather of Soul"Â James BrownÂ in the late 1960s before establishing his full funk presence with the "Father of Funk"Â George ClintonÂ andÂ Parliament-FunkadelicÂ in the '70s. Collins' driving bass guitar and tongue-in-cheek lyrical prowess established him as an unforgettable persona in the music industry and beyond. His vast musical catalogue is heralded internationally for his driving and uniquely rhythmic master grooves. He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1997. "Hi-On-Heels" is his latest release from his most current melodious chapter, Word Wide Funk on the Mascot Label. The project oozes with Collins' signature cosmic sound and is an unadulterated 15-track tour de force album!

Bishop Don "Magic" Juan imparts an added exceptional ingredient to "The Bootsy Collins Players Ball Hi-On-Heels House Party and Video Shoot" as the host.Â Don "Magic" Juan has been long heralded in the hip hop community for his elaborate Players Ball presentations for decades now.Â His decision to leave the 'street game' is well documented in his 1994 book "From the Pimp Stick to the Pulpit-It's Magic" yet he continues to host mythical Players Ball events around the country.Â Attendees are well reputed for their extravagant displays of fur, diamonds, sequins and style. Notables in attendance over the years have includedÂ Snoop Dogg, Ice Cube, Ice-T andÂ Wiz Khalifa.Â Don Juan recently hosted his own "43rd Annual Official Bishop Don "Magic" Juan Players Ball" in December on Chicago's West Side.

"Rouse House Entertainment is well known for bringing 'grown and sexy' nightlife events to Los Angeles' professionals," notes premier event host,Â Kevin Rouse of Rouse House Entertainment. "We are excited to partner with Honeycomb Entertainment Productions on this spectacular production! We know social media will be on fire that evening as folks come out to celebrate these two amazing tastemakers known for their extreme fashionable flair. It's going to be a total experience of music, fashion, fun, funk and flavor!"
