[youtube id="A9k89DYdHKQ"] Janelle Mon  ie's trailer for her new album Dirty Computer is described as an Emotion Picture. The Afrofuturist clip has fans asking if her Cindi Mayweather persona has returned to end the Metropolis: Suite I (The Chase) saga. The artist has intimate poses with multiple partners including Tessa Thompson amidst high-velocity scenes of a party, a physical examination and war.

Mon  ie's last album was 2013's, Electric Lady. She took time away from music to co-star in Hidden Figures and Moonlight in 2016. There is no release date for Dirty Computer but the trailer is being shown before Black Panther screenings.
