[youtube id="n38sGzjUk6M"] Q-Tip is leading the newly formed Kennedy Center Hip Hop Council. It was announced on A Tribe Called Quest's Instagram last week that major news was on the way and this sounds like the update. The council members will provide guidance on hip-hop's presence at the center. Common, MC Lyte, Grandmaster Caz, Kierno Mayo and Robert Glasper are among the membership that has Questlove as Advisor-At-Large. Watch Q-Tip's above video where he explains the council's formation and purpose. See the full list of members the upcoming events at the Kennedy Center site.
