Coachella

Beyonce made history last night as the first Black woman to headline Coachella. Her two and a half hour set included a tribute to HBCU's marching bands, appearances from Jay-Z, Solange, a couple modern dancing and a new reunion with Destiny's Child. Her blistering performance has many calling the festival Beychella. The whole night that required 11-hour rehearsals is just the beginning of her tour schedule because she and Jay-Z will hit the road with On The Run II this summer.Â
