

Throwback: La Toya Jackson-Heart Don't Lie

[youtube id="7LkVmzX_QR0"]La Toya Jackson's "Heart Don't Lie" was an uncredited duet with Howard Hewett and background vocals from Musical Youth and Janet Jackson. The song's catchiness came from Jackson's pop vocals, Hewett's R&B foundation and Amir Bayyan's glossy production.Â "Heart Don't Lie" is the first song of Jackson's to have a video and the concept was a bright-colored Grease-inspired piece. Jackson's song collaborators did not appear in the video that is most-remembered for the color scheme. It was Jackson's third album also titled Heart Don't Lie and the single and video made the collection her most popular effort.Â
