

Full Crate Directs Video For A Storm On A Summer's Day With Gaidaa

[youtube id="bhuPgeraC84"]Full Crate directs the video for "A Storm On A Summer's Day" collaboration with Gaidaa. The lighting is dim but warm and Gaidaa plays the guitar while singing and hanging out in the house. The lyrics move across the screen as a model looks into the camera in between the scenes of Gaidaa. Full Crate's Still Growing EP comes out later this year.
