

Black Eyed Peas: Get It Official Video

[youtube id="qj0ZEtePacw"] The Black Eyed Peas return after an eight-year hiatus with the socially-conscious video for "Get It." Director Ben Mor takes the viewer through multiple scenes of violent encounters between civilians and the police. The group recently made a commitment to being more politically involved and have created a social action marketplace on their site. The band has also announced their Masters Of The Sun European tour which starts in October.