

Noname's Room 25 Is Coming Out This Friday

Noname's Room 25 debut album is coming out this Friday (September 14th) and today she shares the artwork. Two years ago she emerged with her critically acclaimed Telefone mixtape that quickly identified her as a new artist to watch. The Chicago rapper started her career writing poetry and appeared on early mixtapes from Chance The Rapper and Mick Jenkins. She shared the stage with Chance The Rapper on Saturday Night Live last year as they performed a song from his Coloring Book breakthrough album. The artwork for Room 25 was created by Chicago artist Bryant Giles.
