

Tank And The Bangas : Spaceships Official Video

[youtube id="yftzw9WQAIE"]Tank And The Bangas revel in bright colors as they throw money around in their video for "Spaceships." The song will be on their forthcoming album in 2019. The five-member band from New Orleans has taken funk, poetry and hip-hop and developed a stage show that keeps them on tour. Their movement has grown since they won NPR's Tiny Desk Contest last year. Lead singer Tarriona "Tank" Ball's infectious energy keeps the audience's eyes on the band. If you haven't seen them live yet, they are touring the United States right now.Â
