

Ice Cube: Arrest The President (Audio)

[youtube id="y9oUnC8JtXY"]Ice Cube gives his opinion about contemporary politics on the single "Arrest The President." The rap legend has never feared any potential repercussions of his thoughts on any topic. He makes it clear when he raps "You got the evidence, that N* is Russian Intelligence" that he believes the 45th president is a criminal in a line that would anger Republicans. The lyrics for "Arrest The President" are begging for a visual before the December 7th release date for Everythang's Corrupt.
