

Georgia Anne Muldrow Drops Visual For Overload

[youtube id="HZvpIEvltUA"]Georgia Anne Muldrow reveals her video for "Overload" directed by Capricorn Clark of Harun Collective. "Overload" is the title track of her Brainfeeder debut of which she says is about, "The process of building loving relationships in spite of the malfunctions of Western society." Clark was inspired by an image of Aretha Franklin in her dressing room for the video and used it as a guide for the clip. Muldrow is positioned as a Queen of Black Bohemia surrounded by eager reporters and her partner Dudley Perkins appears later as her love interest. The artist will perform her eclectic soul December 15th, 2018 in London for the Brainfeeder X show at Brixton Academy.
