

B Free & Diggy Simmons Team Up On All Mine Official Video

[youtube id="bFhhXe8TDzE"]Detroit rapper B Free worked with Diggy Simmons on his current single "All Mine." The colleagues filmed the video in Detroit and it's a straightforward night at the club for the visuals. They share a rare moment in the history of rap when men allow themselves to be vulnerable and talk about love and openly share verses about having an appreciation for their girlfriends. B Free has been building his name locally by performing everywhere and opening for people like Big Sean. "All Mine" is from B Free's just released Lost In Paradise EP.Â
