Alycia Bella is getting ready for the release of her debut album with her current single “Seasons.” The Bay Area native R&B singer’s dedication to her love has a lyric video inspired by anime. “Seasons” follows her first song “Bloom” that was released last month. Bella’s vocals and visuals are a vision of serenity and sepia tones. Her focus on relationships is at the center of her forthcoming album. Past experiences working with people like Frank Ocean, Dream, will.i.am and NE-YO has helped develop her artistry and prepare her for a solo experience. Supercar Sadness will come out before the end of the summer.
