

Alicia Keys & Khalid Are So Done

[youtube id="XDCXT7C7lnk"] Alicia Keys and Khalid have collaborated on her newest single "So Done." In the video, directed by Andy Hines and starring Sasha Lane, the singers perform at a prom that turns into chaos. "So Done" will appear on Keys' seventh studio album ALICIA. The song follows "Time Machine," "Good Job" and "Perfect Way To Die" all released earlier this year. ALICIA is the companion to her bestselling book More Myself: A Journey which came out in March. Keys has plans to take the new music to fans live in 2021 with her ALICIA: The World Tour. She said this about "So Done"; "This song is about being done with changing yourself for the sake of others and letting go of anyone else's ideas of how your life should look."