

Caeser Pink & The Imperial Orgy Receive International Acclaim For Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Video

Caeser Pink and The Imperial Orgy have been jarring sensibilities for over two decades with their music and activism. "Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!" is their plea to end racism and bigotry in today's world. They use satire as a tool to get their message across with colorful images that pop with movement. Pink and the band make it known that differences among people should not be cause for division. There is no holding back on their critique of the current administration but everything is tempered with humor. The video has been recognized by 13 international film festivals including the New York Lift-Off Film Festival and the London Comedy Shorts Festival. "Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!" is among Pink's latest work including his classical piece The Samsara Suites and the autobiographic novel The Murder Of The Holly King. Â Â
