

New Music From Moodymann, BADBADNOTGOOD & MF Doom Debuts In Grand Theft Auto Online's The Cayo Perico Heist

Today new music from Detroit house producer and DJ Moodymann, jazz group BADBADNOTGOOD and rap legend MF Doom debuts in Grand Theft Auto Online The Cayo Perico Heist. Sam Houser, founder of Rockstar Games, says the game is “Our way of getting everyone together to party and dance in the safest possible way while also giving players the chance to take on our biggest and best Heist yet.” The new in-game club is called The Music Locker which builds on the club experience first introduced in Grand Theft Auto Online's After Hours Update in 2018.

The game also features three new radio stations: Still Slipping Los Santos from UK DJ Joy Orbison; Kult FM hosted by Julian Casablancas featuring Mac DeMarco, David Cross and Tony Mac; and Music Locker Radio, bringing the club sounds of Moodymann, Keinemusik and Palms Trax to the airwaves of Los Santos.

Listen to Moodymann's “1988” and BADBADNOTGOOD with MF Doom on “Chocolate Conquistadors” which is a remake of Johnny Hammond's “Los Conquistadors Chocolates.”
