

Joyce Wrice: Overgrown Album Stream

Joyce Wrice's debut album Overgrown has arrived and the California native introduces herself with a team of contemporary notables. She previously shared her Freddie Gibbs duet "On One" with the official video. D'Mile, who just took home a Grammy for executive producing the 2021 Song Of The Year, produced the 14-song offering that explores the stages of love. Masego, Kaytranada, Lucky Daye, Westside Gunn, Devin Morrison and UMI are guests on the effort that was three years in the making. Wrice admits to the excitement of a dream coming true and her ultimate intention: "My intention for this album is to inspire and encourage people to never give up on themselves and embrace your journey with joy and confidence despite the struggle to get to where you want to be."
