

Watch: Gaidaa Perform Let Me For COLORS

Watch Gaidaa sing “Let Me” in her third COLORS performance four months after partnering with the platform to give a show of “OMG” for their inaugural live showcase in New York. “Let Me” is jazzy but still retains the roots of R&B heard on her 2020 debut EP Overture. The Dutch-Sudanese singer just shared the video for “Stranger” featuring Saba this past February. She also sang “Morning Blue” for them a year ago. Her third COLORS showcase is further proof of her ability to create a mood.
