

Lion Babe Honors Frida Kahlo

Lion Babe pays tribute to the late Mexican painter Frida Kahlo with their song named after her. Kahlo's famous passion for her art is an inspiration and Jillian sings about the similar need to make art the center of her life. The video is fun with vibrant colors as the duo performs for the camera in between shots of a Frida Kahlo figurine.Â Their love of dance music is also intact with the overall vibe. "Frida Kahlo" is leading the way to the release of their next album Rainbow Child this summer.Â
