

Kindred The Family Soul Set A Summer Vibe With Visual For Break It Down

Kindred The Family Soul gets ready for summer with their video for “Break It Down.” They take their romance to the roller rink which is warm nostalgia for the present. The single is from their recently released Auntie & Unc which maintains their hold as one of Philadelphia’s best. Aja, Fatin and video directors Embassy: Interactive & Hezekiah make love and marriage love look fun, cool and familiar. When they aren’t making music they are interviewing artists for their Kindred Presents series.Â
