

Lion Babe Release Video For Get Up Feat. Trinidad James & Show Schedule

Lion Babe's video for "Get Up" featuring Trinidad James is a fun and vivid place created solely under their direction. The colors, Jillian's big hair and the overall theme of the visual is to match the song's message of being fierce in your individuality. Jillian and Lucas explained in statement what the "Get Up" is about: "Get Up is a song about freeing yourself from your own thoughts and from others' judgements. It's a reminder that your higher self is unphased by all the noise." The song will be on their forthcoming Rainbow Child album coming out next month.

The duo has also resumed live shows with two dates coming up at the Mercury Lounge in New York City. The August 5th show will be an album release concert and tickets are available for the live stream and the in-person option. On September 28th, they have a show at Elsewhere Brooklyn. Tickets can be purchased here.
