

Earth, Wind & Fire Share Debut Single With Lucky Daye You Want My Love

Earth, Wind & Fire debut their first song with singer Lucky Daye. Babyface produced "You Want My Love" which is an update of "Can't Hide Love" from the group's 1975 Gratitude album. Daye's vocals meld into the classic that still keeps Maurice White's voice. The layers are complementary and Daye's contribution is a supple addition to a sacred favorite. Their collaboration poses the question of what will a whole album sound like with the new lineup?Â
