

Moonchild & Lalah Hathaway Join Forces For Tell Him

Moonchild share another slice of their upcoming Starfruit album with “Tell Him” featuring Lalah Hathaway. Amber Narvan’s dreamy pitch and Hathaway’s resonant harmony are unexpected bliss. Moonchild’s consistency reaches a new apex with Hathaway’s unmistakable voice merged in collaboration. The Los Angeles trio is excited for the upcoming release of Starfruit on February 11th. Rapsody, Alex Isley, Tank and the Bangas, Josh Johnson, Ill Camille, Mumu Fresh and Chantae Cann are featured on the band’s fifth album. Narvan had this to say about their Black women collaborators: “I was so overjoyed that they were down and I’m obsessed with everything they did! All too often Black women don’t get the recognition and credit they deserve for their incredible talent and contributions to the music industry, and in every industry, scene and space. Each one of these women has been a huge inspiration to us and we were so honored to get the opportunity to make music with them...” Moonchild’s Starfruit tour will kick off in Europe next month and come back to America in March.
