

Listen: Mary J. Blige: Good Morning Gorgeous

Mary J. Blige's Good Morning Gorgeous is out now. The singer and actress' 14th studio album brings her hip-hop soul blueprint into 2022. She gave a preview with the title track, "Amazing" featuring DJ Khaled and "Rent Money" featuring Dave East before the drop. The self-love fest carries on from Strength Of A Woman which was about her surviving a contentious divorce. She still has energy from that event on GMG but it does not stop her from offering some party songs. Usher, Fivio Foreign and anderson.paak are the other guests on the album. Last week she was seen in the season finale of Power Book II: Ghost and tomorrow she will be the lone woman performer at the Super Bowl.
