

KAYTRANADA Shares Twin Flame Feat. anderson.paak

KAYTRANADA shares “Twin Flame” featuring anderson.paak while on tour. The producer takes a compressed sample of Sister Sledge’s “One More Time” as the bed of the song while paak raps over it. The rap-flavored disco fits perfectly with paak’s talent of recasting previous sounds and making them sound like the 21st century. KAYTRANADA is currently supporting The Weeknd on his arena tour across North America. In September he has two sold-out dates at dance music venue Brooklyn Mirage. He released his INTIMIDATED EP last year and “Twin Flame” is his first release for 2022. Check out the black and white video for “Twin Flame.”
