

Keke Wyatt Reveals Water Into Wine Single + New Album

Keke Wyatt comes with a summer surprise in the form of her latest song, "Water Into Wine." The R&B singer extraordinaire promotes unconditional love by accepting an imperfect partner. Wyatt intones that she only wants her man's sincerity and genuine effort because unlike Jesus she can not miraculously make a relationship work. She delivers a no-nonsense message about love with warm and translucent pipes. "Water Into Wine" will be on Wyatt's first album in six years and it marks her return to Shanachie Records. She shared her eagerness about the deal in a press release. "I really feel good about signing with Shanachie! I'm excited and finally ready. I feel like this time we will create magic together and make HISTORY!" Wyatt's last album was Keke Covers and since then she has expanded her family and had a role on the TV show Saints & Sinners. In October We TV and ALLBLK will present her new reality show Keke Wyatt's World. Her next album will be released in late 2023.
