

Beyoncé Debuts Two New Songs During Superbowl

Beyoncé's Verizon commercial during the Superbowl was also a promotion for her next project which is a tribute to country music. "Texas Hold Em" and "16 Carriages" were posted to Spotify and YouTube. Her Instagram account had a snippet of “Texas Hold Em” and described the album as act ii with the date March 29th. She also alluded to the album at the Grammys by wearing a cowboy hat.