

Gram-Of-Fun's Complicated Plant Gets A JaFunk Remix

Gram-Of-Fun is a pop band from Estonia and their current single “Complicated Plant” is remixed by Lisbon-based Australian producer Jafunk. The tireless groove invites you to the dancefloor led by Kristel Aaslaid’s airy vocals. The keyboard riffs and dreamy synthesizers mingle with the rhythm bolstered by a subtle bass. The supporting vocals smack of the kind of funk George Clinton’s all-woman crew Parlet had in their repertoire. Jafunk’s remix makes “Complicated Plant” a party favor worth playing for summer crowds, driving, or just dancing at home alone.
