

Rapsody Reasserts Her Presence In Video For Back In My Bag

Rapsody claims her self-possession loudly with no apologies in her video for “Back In My Bag.” She talks straight to the camera about her road to becoming fully confident and comfortable in her personal space. She’s got fast cars around, a tattoo of her mom, and a posse. Rapsody previously released the video for “3:AM” featuring Erykah Badu. Both songs are from her fourth studio album, Please Don’t Cry. Rapsody will head for the Please Don’t Cry International Tour in September.
