

Lucky Daye Shares Live Performance Of Diamonds In Teal

Lucky Daye shares a live performance video of “Diamonds In Teal” from his Algorithm album. His live version is a match for the studio recording, and both of them have similar emotional depth. Algorithm follows his 2022 Candydrip longplayer. The video comes out on the same day he ends his summer tour. If you missed the tour, merchandise is available on his official website.
