

The Jenesse Center Salutes Hair Stylist to the Stars, Dr. Boogie as a Hope Angel During Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October

Hollywood – For years Dr. Boogie has styled the locks of Hollywood’s rich and famous, including most recently the likes of Vivica Fox, Debbie Allen and Kym Whitley. His Dr. Boogie’s Do-It-Yourself Clip-On Hairpieces and his chemical-free, organic, all natural skin and hair products are also all the rage in Tinsel Town and beyond. However, what most don’t know is that the “hair stylist to the stars” has a special clientele that he has been privately catering to for years now. They are the women seeking shelter and support from the Jenesse Center, the oldest domestic violence intervention program in South Los Angeles.

The Jenesse Center is honoring Dr. Boogie as a “Hope Angel” during October, Domestic Violence Awareness Month, for his volunteer service of providing self-esteem building makeovers and glamour shot portraits to their clients as gifts. It is indeed star treatment for women who need it most.

“Dr. Boogie has made such a huge difference in the lives of Jenesse women and families. Many of our clients experience unbelievable stress and trauma from horrendous cases of battering, domestic violence and abuse. Dr. Boogie has a special magic for making the women feel loved, appreciated and yes, beautiful! We are just thrilled that he shares his gift so freely with us,” expresses Jenesse’s public relations representative, Jeanine Taylor.

Dr. Boogie's own experience with domestic violence goes back to his childhood. He recalls how he could make relatives around him feel better when they were suffering from instances of abuse. "Often times I would see those close to me sad, hurting and crying. I would do their hair and it always seemed to help raise their spirits. I came to understand that on a very deep level, when you look good it helps you to feel better. I understand on a personal level the trials the women who come to the Jenesse Center are experiencing. Bringing a little sunshine into their lives probably makes me happier than them! I love being able to share my gift, it is honestly the best part of what I do throughout my career."

Kym Whitley, Dr. Boogie and Vivica Fox

In addition to his work at the Jenesse Center, Boogie has been busy styling OWN-TV'S Kym Whitley as well as working with Vivica Fox on her syndicated show, "Mr. Box Office" and Lifetime's "Prank My Mom." He is also one of Sophisticate's Black Hair Styles & Care Guide's celebrity hair consultant experts.

Experience the magical treatment of Dr. Boogie at <http://www.BoogieSecrets.com>. For information on the Jenesse Center go to <https://jenesse.org/> .

Media Questions Of The Week

1. Why was the interviewer for Vanity Fair so fascinated with

Jay-Z's drug-dealing past?

2. Why is fashion designer Marc Ecko using Biggie's "Ten Crack Commandments" in his Skillshare class when he could've just used something from Puffy's business acumen that was used to make B.I.G. a star?

3. Is Questlove correct when he says that Miley Cyrus is using Black people as "accessories" in her entertainment ventures with hip-hop?

4. What does it mean that The Carlye Group which once had a Bin Laden family in its membership has invested \$500 million dollars into Beats By Dre?

Janelle Monae Live At The Rebecca Minkoff NYFW Show

[youtube id="SBwP4oimQvk"]

Janelle Monae performed live at Rebecca Minkoff's New York Fashion Week Show as a part of American Express's Unstaged series. The shows are designed to pair visionary artists together in a live setting. Monae lit up the space with "Dance Or Die," "Tightrope" and "Q.U.E.E.N." The fashionistas are also happy with Minkoff's Spring/Summer 2014 Collection of urban but chic dresses, pants and shorts. The Electric Lady is out today!

Hair Expert and Author Toni Love Presents Third Annual Toni Love Hair Loss and Business Conference

Atlanta – From Oprah Winfrey declaring “Let’s Talk Hair” on the latest cover of O Magazine; to the Kardashians sporting weaves and extensions; to any number of the reality show “Housewives” unabashedly wearing wigs; hair, hair care and hair loss has become big business. Toni Love has studied the trends and is an authoritarian on all things hair. The celebrated author of “The World of Wigs, Weaves and Extensions” will once again provide leadership, information and guidance to hair professionals from around the world as she presents her Third Annual Toni Love Hair Loss and Business Conference, October 6 and 7 at the Atlanta Airport Westin in Atlanta, GA.

The conference will specifically address issues concerning hair loss and baldness, a matter that affects millions of people regardless of age, race and gender. Though hair loss disease is not life threatening, The American Hair Loss Association has recognized that hair loss is a serious life altering condition that can no longer be ignored by the medical community and society as a whole.

The Toni Love Hair Loss and Business Conference will offer sessions for hair professionals covering topics that include bridging the gap between dermatology and cosmetology; learning how to develop relationships with doctors; interlocking hair extensions and covering bald spots without braids and glue; starting a business, the steps for setting up a hair loss center and more.

“I am passionate about hair,” reveals Toni. “Whether you are a man or a woman, hair is our crowning glory. I am driven to infuse hair professionals with the proper tools, education and just as important, the mind set, to handle issues of hair loss with their clients. The Hair Loss and Business Conference is a two day intensive that is loaded with valuable information, insight and perspective.”

With over 20 years in the hair industry, Toni Love’s Hair Loss and Business Conference is just one of the many assets which continue to propel her legacy as a definitive hair expert. An internationally recognized hair loss expert, Love’s book, “The World of Wigs, Weaves and Extensions” (Milady-Cengage Learning) is the ultimate guide that uncovers the secrets to top-notch hair and wig care. Her popular manual, “Tips to Passing the Cosmetology State Board,” was a ‘must have’ for students of cosmetology, and her instructional DVD’s: “Keeping Cutting Simple,” “Interlocking Hair Extensions: No Braids! No Glue!” and “Hair Replacement: Covering Bald Areas,” are specifically designed for cosmetology students and professionals who want to be at the top of their game.

Wigs, Weave & Extensions by Toni Love

In addition, Love has designed a hair care program specifically for use with hair of all ethnicities. Toni Love’s Hair Cleansing System uniquely regenerates hair and stimulates growth starting at the root. The three-step product line consists of a residue remover, a hair and scalp cleanser, and a hair and scalp conditioner.

Toni Love's Hair Cleansing System

Toni Love has an extensive background in Business Management and obtained her master's degree in Continuing Education. She holds instructor licenses in Cosmetology and Barbering and is a certified Hair Loss Specialist in addition to hair consultant and published author. Love is certified through the American Cancer Society, teaching "Look Good Feel Better" cancer patients how to cope with their hair loss as they go through chemotherapy.

A graduate of the Hair Design Academy, and a veteran, United States Army Reserves, Love has taught a variety of students in both private and public institutions. She is also the founder of Toni Love's Training Center in Atlanta, GA, a thriving oasis for professional cosmetologists who are passionate about learning the latest techniques in hair maintenance and hairstyles. In addition, her advance knowledge of hair loss and her weave training courses position her as a go-to-source for the all-things-hair when the media seeks expert input.

Love continues to keep the hair community updated and informed blogging and hosting The Toni Love Show which airs on her YouTube channel. For updates on current hair tips and trends, as well as hair options for cancer patients and survivors she offers an online membership group at <http://www.TheToniLoveGroup.com>.

"Like" her on Facebook at "Toni Love Cosmetology" and to keep up with the latest trends in hair, hair loss and hair care read her blog at <http://letstalkhairwithtonilove.blogspot.com/>.

For more information about Toni Love and the Hair Loss and Business Conference, visit her website at www.ToniLove.com or call 770-704-7653.

To view a quick demonstration of Toni Love's hair replacement technique, view the video below:

[youtube id="Kz8nyjMUX0Y"]

Toni Love – Hair Replacement