

Regina Carter On American Black Journal

[youtube id="Gd5gqIqYrVY"]

Detroit's American Black Journal celebrated Black Music Month with guest Regina Carter yesterday. Ms. Carter, who is from Detroit, is touring her current album, Southern Comfort. She discusses her path to becoming a jazz violinist, early musical opportunities in Detroit and how she researched her family for her last two albums. Carter will be appearing at the Detroit Jazz Festival this year on Labor Day.

Mark de Clive-Lowe-Church

Church by Mark de Clive-Lowe

Mark de Clive-Lowe's Church is a non-denominational meditation fashioned from R&B and jazz. He's currently touring Europe and has one-stop in New York City before he makes a number of concert dates in Los Angeles.

Al Jarreau Celebrates George

Duke

[youtube id="32RPbvCJ-Kc"]

Al Jarreau pays tribute to the late George Duke and their 50 year friendship with the new CD, My Old Friend: Celebrating George Duke. Jarreau sings a number of Duke's tunes with personnel that includes Lalah Hathaway, Stanley Jordan, Marcus Miller, Dianne Reeves, Jeffrey Osborne, Gerald Albright, Kelly Price and Dr. John. The album comes out August 15th but it can be pre-ordered via PledgeMusic. Those who choose to purchase the CD through PledgeMusic have the option of also buying various VIP packages that include show tickets and a chance to meet Jarreau during soundcheck.

Don Cheadle Has An Indiegogo Campaign For Miles Davis Film

[vimeo id="97297100"]

Don Cheadle has launched an Indiegogo campaign for his Miles Davis biopic, Miles Ahead. The goal is to raise $325,000 by July 10 to make the film he has been working on since 2007. The Miles Davis estate supports his efforts to make the film that he intends to shoot this summer. Cheadle will play Davis in the project that focuses on a few days in his life after he emerged from a career hiatus.