

Singer-Songwriter TONEX To Release His First Album In Five Years On Battery Records

Jeff Mills became known in the '80s as "The Wizard" when he DJed swift sets of hype dance music on WJLB. For the past two decades he has travelled the world and displayed his DJ sets and productions. In 2000 he re-scored "Metropolis" and in 2006 he recorded Blue Potential with The Montpellier Philharmonic Orchestra. After seeing what the orchestra does with "The Bells" all electronic music haters have to bow down. Check out the interview here.
