Nicki Minaj performed “Where Them Girls At,” “Moment 4 Life” and “Super Bass” on “Good Morning America” today in between being interviewed by Robin Roberts. But it is not clear why she had a turkey leg in her mouth and some people believe her wardrobe malfunction was planned to take attention away from her recent episode with domestic violence.

M.O.P. also showed-up to perform at the Brooklyn Hip-Hop Festival. Here they are bringing rock star energy to “Ante Up.”

Kyle Rapps – “Streets Move On” (Air Redux)

Kyle Rapps is back, this time with the second single from his forthcoming mixtape On Air. For the Harlem-based rapper's latest project, Kyle enlisted producer and long-time collaborator Nate G, who flips samples from legendary French electronic band Air, while Kyle also called on a few friends for guest appearances, including Talib Kweli, for the previously released single "Universe Traveler," along with C-Rayz Walz and recent collaborators KRS-One and Homeboy Sandman.
