Introducing BrotherAli.com

Potluck and D12 Kick Off 'Dazed and Dirty'™ Tour

(August 26, 2009 – Brooklyn, NY) Fresh off the release of their critically praised album Brooklynati, forerunners of the new old school movement, Tanya Morgan are taking over the South & Midwest over 4 different nights to bring you that real good, feel good hip-hop. MC/Producer Von Pea spoke on the group's game plan, "We're working on a few subtle changes to how we perform, plus we're performing some tracks off Brooklynati that we haven't performed yet. We're also looking forward to St. Louis since we never been there so it's a renewed excitement to all." Especially for the Chicago show on Tuesday, September 3rd, Tanya Morgan has teamed up with Lumeefly to engage fans that will not be able to attend the shows. Lumeefly is a new media company designed to duplicate that "LIVE" concert experience over the internet for fans all over the globe. Online viewers can experience an emotionally charged, digitally enhanced, and interactive Tanya Morgan show, all from the comfort of their computers for a small fee. For show and net-tix info, check out www.lumeefly.com.
