Kidz In The Hall To Appear on BET's 106 & Park Tonight

Kidz In The Hall, currently on a 35-City National Tour sponsored by Microsoft ZUNE, are continuing to build off the success of their sophomore album, "THE IN CROWD." The group's second single and video for their song "LOVE HANGOVER" featuring Estelle is going to be 'THE NEW JOINT' on BET's 106 & Park today, Friday November 21st airing at 6PM EST. The video debuted on BET's new show "THE DEAL" last week and the group will be an invited guest on the show in early December. Few Independent artists have had the opportunity to break into the national spotlight that 106 & Park provides. This is yet another stepping stone for Kidz In The Hall, reaffirming their premier status in Hip Hop.

“Love Hangover” is also in rotation at MTV 2, MTVU, MTV Jamz, VH1 Soul, Music Choice & FUSE. The video has been added into programming for United Airlines and US Airways as well. Furthermore, starting December 26th and running for one month, Kidz In The Hall will be the featured artist highlighted on Nordstrom’s website. The promotion consists of reviews, and a stream of their LOVE HANGOVER video. It’s a way for Nordstrom’s to offer a spotlight to music and videos that they believe their customers will appreciate.

“Love Hangover” is also receiving radio support with mixshow spins from marquee DJs such as Envy, Self, ENUFF, Mr. Cee, and Cocoa Chanelle to name a few.

In other recent news, Kidz In The Hall’s first single “Driving Down The Block” has been included in the soundtrack for Rockstar Game’s Midnight Club LA. This is Kidz In The Hall’s second major gaming licensing deal, after their song “The Blackout” was featured as only one of twenty tracks in EA Sports Madden 09.

Double O of Kidz In The Hall is excited about the promotions, saying “this is another great milestone for Kidz In The Hall, Duck Down Records, Major League Entertainment and our overall team. The album and its music has exceeded our expectations and proves that good, quality music can rise to the top.”
