

Lauryn Hill Announces A Diaspora Calling! Concert Series Tour In Association With Live Nation And Tidal

Lauryn Hill is taking the MLH Caravan: A Diaspora Calling! Concert Series on tour in association with Tidal and Live Nation. She presented the first concert at the Kings theater in Brooklyn. Ms. Hill says: “The MLH Caravan allows me to continue the theme of unity and celebration of the many facets of cultural and artistic beauty throughout the African diaspora while on tour this summer and fall. In these days of tension, tumult and transition, an exchange of this kind can yield direction, expression, understanding and empowerment as well as connection, self Love and appreciation that hopefully overflows into our respective communities.” Each show will have guest performance from various artists of the African diaspora.

Tidal members will have exclusive access to a pre-sale on August 4th at 10:00AM. Members can find details by logging into their Tidal account.
