

Doomtree Announces The Doomtree Zoo, East Coast/West Coast Off In The Deep Tour

Doomtree announces the Doomtree Zoo, an all-day event at CHS Field, the new ballpark of the St. Paul Saints, with performances from Doomtree, Aesop Rock with Rob Sonic, Trash Talk, Shabazz Palaces and Open Mike Eagle. October 3rd, 2015. 2-10pm. CHS Field, 360 N Broadway St, St. Paul, MN 55101. Presented by Surly Brewing Co. and Copycats Media. The Minneapolis rap collective will headline the show after coming off their international tour for their All Hands album. Tickets go on sale to the public on Saturday, August 1st at 11am CST. Members of Doomtree will be selling tickets hand-to-hand at the CHS Field box office from 11am-1pm, so swing through to say hello and get a glimpse of the ballpark. Online tickets will be available for purchase here. Tickets are $35 in advance and $45 at the door. A very limited number of Baller Passes are also available. Pass-holders will be able to enter the stadium before doors to watch the Doomtree soundcheck; get a photo with the crew and participate in a Q&A; score an autographed poster, a Doomtree drawstring bag, a couple of drink tickets, and a Doomtree Zoo laminate. They'll also be able to watch the show from the Securian Club with a dedicated bar, restroom, and balcony. Passes are $100. A total of 300 will be sold.

Doomtree will be hitting up each coast this Fall on the Off In The Deep Tour. Astronautalis will join them on the West Coast dates.
