

Watch: Ama Lou Become A Living Self-Portrait In Video For Far Out

Ama Lou by Dom Sesto

Ama Lou's EP Ama Who? came out late last year and it was an unflinching listen into her R&B world. Today the London native shares the video for "Far Out" which positions her as a living portrait. On the concept of the visual, she says, "I thought given how stripped back 'Far Out' is, the visual had to represent that also no big sets, no pre-production and no characters. It's just me in front of you. Just like the song." Ama Lou is also kicking off a North American tour in April with the first stop in Oakland, California.Â
