

Media Questions Of The Week

Is Janet Jackson really having a hard time selling her new single “No Sleep” because of her age? If so, then why did the UK rock band Blur, who is also over 40, come back with their new album, The Magic Whip at number 1? And do her record sales matter when her tour is selling out?

Will Amazon Studio’s first film, Spike Lee’s Chirag, be a game-changer for them and the entertainment business?

Does it really matter that Empire was not nominated for an Emmy in the Drama Series category?

Bill Cosby's New Hip-Hop Album Hit's Amazon's Daily Deal

LOS ANGELES " Nov. 11, 2009 " Beginning today, comedian/actor/author Bill Cosby's recently produced hip-hop album, "Bill Cosby Presents the Cosnarati: State of Emergency," is available now through Amazon.com. Fans can purchase the album as a digital download for the special price of $1.99 TODAY only as part of Amazon's Daily Deal.

Tapping into rap music's socially conscious roots, "State of Emergency" addresses most critical issues affecting today's youth. A trio of talented and skillful young rappers "Jace the Great, Brother Hahz and Supa Nova Slom" address such themes as self-respect, peer pressure, abuse and education through frank, insightful lyrics with a two-fold aim: bridging the generation gap and empowering listeners to take action rather than continue to sit back.
