Angie Fisher's Grammy-nominated single "I.R.S." gets an official video of the singer belting out the song onstage and while she walks through an empty parking lot looking structure. Fisher's emotional delivery is on par with the kind of stress can only be caused by personal debt with the government. "I.R.S." is from her forthcoming Hidden Beach debut, Searching For Angie Fisher.

Angie Fisher has been toiling behind the scenes singing backup for artists like Michael Jackson, Mary J. Blige, Missy Elliot, Lionel Richie and Chaka Khan among others but she is breaking out to offer her voice as a solo star. "I.R.S." is the first single from her forthcoming album on Hidden Beach Records. You can see her at work making the song about economic hard times by clicking here.
