Azu YechÃ© has a new single called “Plastic Life” produced by his longtime collaborator Tony White. The pop/folk/R&B song is about having the courage to speak one’s truth without regret. “Plastic Life” is from YechÃ©’s forthcoming sophomore EP due for an April release. YechÃ©’s statement about “Plastic Life” explains the complete meaning behind the song.

“(“Plastic Life”) Â is about speaking oneâ€™s mind after a prolonged period of holding back. It is that moment where you have to speak your mind and trust that the relationship can handle it.”
