Breaking A Monster Official Trailer

[youtube id="PAa4M56ctM4"] The story of Unlocking The Truth’s introduction to the music industry was made into the documentary, Breaking A Monster. Â Malcolm Brickhouse, Alec Atkins and Jarad Dawson started playing heavy metal in Times Square a couple of years ago and their performances were posted to Youtube. The sight of three African-American middle-schoolers Â in a rock band was unforgettable and Â a series of events lead to them signing a 1.8 million dollar contract with Sony Music Entertainment in 2014. Despite all the excitement about getting a record deal, they got out of the contract in 2015. After deciding to go the independent route, they will release their debut album, Chaos, on TuneCore June 17th. Breaking A Monster will be in theaters June 24th.
