

Tuxedo & Zapp Perform Shy On Conan

[youtube id="loPlUnygzmQ"] Tuxedo and Zapp perform "Shy" on Conan and bring '80s funk into 2018. They made the whole retro scene complete with dancers on rollerskates. Mayer Hawthorne and Jake One released Tuxedo II last year.

The Sugarhill Gang Perform Rapper's Delight On Conan

[youtube id="5rD3F36URKI"] The Sugarhill Gang were Conan O'Brien's musical guests last night and they performed their legendary "Rapper's Delight" single. It's been almost 40 years since "Rapper's Delight" came out and signaled the commercial rise of hip-hop. Some of the audience's younger members were more than likely puzzled to hear a lyric about owning a color TV in 2016.

Blood Orange Dedicates Conan Performance To Murder Victims

[youtube id="ToJw90cfi8E"] Watch Blood Orange dedicate his performance of "Augustine" and "Thank You" to murder victims Philando Castile, Terrence McCrary, Jr. and Hande Kader. He played the piano while dancers were on each side of him. Photos of Castile, McCrary and Kader were positioned in front of the piano. Blood Orange's Freetown Sound album is out now.

Charles Bradley-Ain't It A Sin Live On Conan

[youtube id="qUT6Qa2eqn0"] Charles Bradley was a musical guest on Conan last night and performed "Ain't It A Sin" from his Changes album.