

Jay Worthy, DaM-Funk & Dram Salute The Westside

Jay Worthy, DaM-Funk, and DRAM pay tribute to the “Westside” on the latest offering from Worthy. Watch the three of them reminisce and recapture the essence of the G-Funk era as they ride around Los Angeles. Worthy brought one of his low-riders to the visual and they all take in the scenery as he sits behind the wheel. The underground rapper released Nothing Bigger Than The Program, his collaborative album with Roc Marciano in 2023. DaM-Funk ended 2023 with Dam-Funk Presents The Music of Grand Theft Auto Online Original Score for Rockstar Games. DRAM’s DRAM&B album came out earlier this month.

---

Christine And The Queens Perform Girlfriend On The Tonight Show With Dãçm-Funk

[youtube id="WHg0vb1dgp8"]Christine and the Queens were joined by Dãçm-Funk on The Tonight Show for a performance of "Girlfriend" with dancers. The French singer is prepping her sophomore album that has no title or release date yet. Frontwoman HÃ©loÃ¯se Letissier led the dancers around the stage and Dãçm-Funk briefly shared the stage with them before walking back to the band area to finish playing with The Roots. Christine and the Queens will be on tour in the fall.Â

---

DãçM-Funk Shares Unreleased Keep The G In It

<https://soundcloud.com/damfunk/keep-the-g-in-it-dam-funk>

Dãçm-Funk shares the unreleased "Keep The G In It" and reminds fans of his ability to create music perfect for listening to in a car. His last album, Invite The Light was released last year and only time will tell ifÂ "Keep The G In It" will be on his next project.

---

Dam-Funk-Hazy Stomp

<https://soundcloud.com/saftmusik/dam-funk-hazy-stomp-architecture-saft14>

Dam-Funk's "Hazy Stomp" is part of a three-song collection called Architecture that he recorded for the Saft label. The song is three minutes of deep house/funk sounds reflective of the summer and early fall. Architecture will be released in November.