

Georgia Anne Muldrow & Dudley Perkins Put Visuals To Where I'm From

[youtube id="39H9VUs7xyE"]Georgia Anne Muldrow and Dudley Perkins get philosophical about the origins of their place in the universe on their new single "Where I'm From." They cite physical location, the funk, a distant star and their parents as the places of their roots. Director Charles Sicuso filmed the video on a sunny day and the couple is surrounded by clouds, water and the highway. "Where I'm From" is included on their forthcoming album Black Love & War due August 9th under their G&D moniker.Â Â

Declaime: Young Spirit Album Stream

Declaime's Young Spirit album is his message to Black people in America. It is co-produced by his partner Georgia Anne Muldrow and longtime friend Madlib. Saul Williams, Aloe Blacc, Blu and others have guest appearances on Young Spirit. Declaime addresses Black love and police brutality among other topics framed by his concern for the well-being of the oppressed. Stream Young Spirit below and purchase it from iTunes.

Georgia Anne Muldrow - Pop Iconz

[youtube id="n6E7W8AaGtg"]

Georgia Anne Muldrow and her partner Dudley Perkins take up the frame for the "Pop Iconz" visual from Muldrow's Ms. One album. The rapper/singer/poet is critical of white supremacy-loving pop stars obsessed with materialism who influence young people to seek shallow Hollywood dreams.

Dudley Perkins - Me And My Brudda

[youtube id="Eg4PHVl1DcY"]

Dudley Perkins has a vegan Bar B Que in the video for "Me And My Brudda" which is called "The Cut" on his Dr. Stokley album.